The Merry Devil of Edmonton

by Tony Tambasco/Mary Baldwin College M.Litt/MFA Program

Running Time: 90
part of LA 2010 Fringe Tickets

showtimes

CP Review:

r The Merry Devil, Elizabethan author unknown, is so obscure that not only is Bad Quarto's production America's first, but only two delighted audience members found it last night. The students of Mary Baldwin College's Shakespeare in Performance program from Staunton, Va., share their remarkably clear, clever, well-acted staging once more -- today (Sunday) at 2:30 -- before heading home. This brisk comic adventurer isn't Shakespeare, but clearly related -- it's the sort of rollicking plot Shakespeare might have stolen for one of his own comedies. --Mark Cofta
